Can you get a full house before Christmas?

Keep this card nearby for your Teams calls and tick off the festive moments as they happen.

First to five in a row wins this year's festive bragging rights.

Someone wears a Christmas Jumper	At least 2 of you have festive teams' backgrounds	Someone says 'before Christmas'	A santa hat appears	Colleagues start complimenting Christmas decorations
Someone says 'Where has this year gone?'	A christmas tree is visible	The festive mugs have come out	Someone mentions mince pies	A santa hat appears
Someone mentions annual leave	Someone says 'Let's pick this up in January'	Someone apologises for eating on camera	You're on mute	Someone starts counting down the working days left
Someone says 'Is this our last meeting before Christmas?'	Someone says they're not feeling Christmassy yet	Merry Christmas greetings have started	Christmas party chat takes over the meeting	Someone's Christmas lights are on in broad daylight
A Christmas emoji is used in the chat	Christmas music can be heard when someone unmutes	Someone asks "is that a real background?'	Someone says 'right if I don't speak to you before Christmas...'	Someone asks 'are you finished your Christmas shopping?'
