	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• We will have a break half way through the assessment</li><li>• I can ask for extra breaks if I need them</li></ul>

Finding out if I am autistic

At the end of my appointment the clinician will tell me the results of the assessment.

I can ask the clinician any questions I have about autism and the assessment

There are three different things I could be told by the clinician.

I will be told one of these things.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The clinician might tell me I am autistic.</li><li>• I will get information about autism</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The clinician might tell me I am not autistic</li><li>• They might think it is something else</li><li>• They might refer me to a different team</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The clinician might tell me they do not know if I am autistic</li><li>• They might need more information from me</li><li>• They might need to speak to other clinicians</li><li>• They will arrange a second appointment to finish the assessment</li></ul>

Reasons I might want an autism assessment

At the beginning of the appointment the clinician will ask if you want the assessment.

Having the assessment is your choice.

These are reasons an assessment might help:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• People might understand me better</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• I might understand myself better</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• I might get help for things I find difficult</li></ul>

Reasons I might not want an autism assessment

At the beginning of the appointment the clinician will ask if you want the assessment.

Having the assessment is your choice.

These are reasons an assessment might not help:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• some people don't understand autism</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Some people might only see the things I find difficult</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Some people might not see the things I am good at</li></ul>

After the assessment

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The clinician will write an assessment report</li><li>• The report will be sent to me and my GP</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The report will include a care plan</li><li>• The care plan will include advice on what will help me</li></ul>
  	I can contact the Autism Assessment team if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• I need help to understand my report</li><li>• I have questions about the assessment</li><li>• phone: 01189 044600</li><li>• email: neuropsychology@berkshire.nhs.uk</li></ul>
